

ORIENTATION DAY 2013 ELECTRICAL BATCH

The chairman of department Prof. Dr Abdul Sattar Larik welcomed all the respected teachers of the department as well as the Students of 13EL Batch.

Chairman of the department disclosed that, the selected students in Electrical Engineering have got one of the major technologies of Mehran University on National and International level and he pointed out, we have very strong faculty well qualified and well experienced teachers in the field of Electrical Engineering.

Finally, Dr Iarik advised the students to maintain good discipline in the department and also help in academic environment in this department. In the end Prof Anwar Ahmed Memon gave complete presentation including brief history of university, department, courses, facilities, rules and regulations etc.